

Dissecting CMMC 2.0 Webinar
January 27, 2022
Presenter Biographies

Evan D. Wolff, Partner, Crowell & Moring

Evan D. Wolff formerly an advisor to senior DHS leadership, is Crowell & Moring's Privacy & Cybersecurity Practice Co-Chair. He advises leading companies on network security, intrusion investigations, and data breaches. Evan is a Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars fellow, and a member of the Sandia National Lab External Advisory Board and Aspen Institute's Homeland Security Group.

Nkechi Kanu, Counsel, Crowell & Moring

Nkechi Kanu has significant experience assisting companies with complex internal investigations and represents clients in government investigations involving allegations of fraud. She also focuses on assisting clients with investigations relating to cybersecurity and information security compliance. Her complementary litigation practice involves defending companies in government-facing litigation arising under the FCA, resulting in the dismissal of qui tam complaints and successful settlements of FCA claims with DOJ.

Michael Gruden, CIPP/G, Associate, Crowell & Moring

Michael G. Gruden is a Government Contracts and Privacy & Cybersecurity attorney that possesses real-world experience in the areas of federal procurement and data security, having worked as a Contracting Officer at both the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in the Information Technology, Research & Development, and Security sectors for nearly 15 years. Michael is a Certified Information Privacy Professional with a U.S. government concentration (CIPP/G), and he is also a Registered Practitioner under the Cybersecurity Maturity Model Certification (CMMC) framework.

Christopher R. Hebdon, Associate, Crowell & Moring

Christopher R. Hebdon is an associate in Crowell & Moring's Washington, D.C. office, where he practices at the intersection of the Government Contracts and Privacy & Cybersecurity groups. Chris's practice includes a variety of counseling engagements, including compliance reviews, risks assessments, due diligence, internal investigations, and incident response, as well as contract claims before the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals. Chris received his law degree from The George Washington University Law School.