

Service Contract Act Compliance
Challenges in a COVID 19 Environment
February 10, 2022
Presenter Biographies

Nichole Atallah, Partner, PilieroMazza PLLC

Nichole Atallah is a Partner and the Practice Group Chair of Labor & Employment at the DC-based law firm PilieroMazza PLLC. Government contractors rely on Nichole’s substantial expertise with FAR Part 22 compliance, including the Service Contract Labor Standards (Service Contract Act), Construction Labor Standards (Davis-Bacon Act), and the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs requirements specific to government contractors. Nichole’s primary goal in representing employers is to help guide them through difficult situations, proactively address compliance, and avoid costly disputes.

Sarah Nash, Partner, PilieroMazza PLLC

Sarah Nash is a Partner in the Labor & Employment Group at the DC-based law firm PilieroMazza PLLC. She regularly advises clients on compliance specific to government contracting, including offering counsel on prevailing wage laws, such as the Service Contract Act, codes of ethics, and equal employment opportunity requirements. Sarah is also a member of the Firm’s Construction Industry Team, where she focuses on matters arising under the Davis-Bacon Act and prevailing wage requirements.